The University of Texas at Arlington

Application for Graduate Assistantship

(Please print or type all information)

Graduate assistantships in the Department of Economics are limited and granted on a competitive basis. Awarding of assistantships depends on the availability of funds. Applicants should be enrolled as a full-time student pursuing a graduate degree in economics. Also, recipients of graduate assistantships cannot have other employment, including assistantships and internships. Return to Barbara Sellers, Department of Economics, Box 19479, Arlington, TX 76019. Return in person at Suite 309, College of Business, The University of Texas at Arlington.

The Department of Economics stresses that its first priority is to students enrolled in the MA program in Economics. Lower priority will be given to graduate students in the College of Business Administration.
