2. OUR RIGHTS AS PUBLISHER

For the avoidance of doubt, you confirm that by entering into this Agreement, you have assigned to us the right to publish the final, definitive and citable Version of Scholarly Record on an Open Access basis. This means that Taylor & Francis will make the Article in its entirety freely available online with no subscription fee or article-pay-to-view fee or any other form of access fee or any publication embargo being applied and that as a consequence of this Agreement, our rights include but are not limited to:

- 2.1. the rights to publish, reproduce, distribute, display, post and store the Article worldwide in all forms, versions, formats and media now known or that will be developed in the future, including print, electronic, and digital forms;
- 2.2. the rights to translate the Article into other languages, create adaptations, summaries or extracts of the Article or other derivative works based on the Article and all rights defined here shall apply in these respects;
- 2.3. the rights to sub-license all such rights to others; and
- 2.4. the rights to supply the Article in electronic, digital, and online forms and systems.
- 2.5. Patent rights, trademark rights, or rights to any process, product or procedure described in an Article are not licensed by you to us by virtue of this Agreement.

3. OUR RESPONSIBILITIES AS PUBLISHER

- 3.1. We shall prepare and publish the Article on an Open Access basis in the Journal. We reserve the right to make such editorial changes as may be necessary to make the Article suitable for publication or as we reasonably consider necessary to avoid infringing third party rights or law; and we reserve the right not to proceed with publication for whatever reason.
- 3.2. If before publication we reasonably consider that the article should not be published, on the advice of our legal advisors, we may decline to publish the article, in which case we will refund you the Open Access Article Publishing Charge.
- 3.3. If after publication we reasonably consider that the article should be retracted or removed from our website, for example, because of a breach in your Author Warranties, we may retract and withdraw it, and in such case shall be under no obligation to refund you the Open Access Article Publishing Charge.

4. YOUR WARRANTIES AS AUTHOR

- 4.1. In the event that you are not the legal owner of all content within the Article in its entirety, you hereby warrant that where applicable you have secured the necessary written permission from the appropriate copyright owner or authorities for the reproduction in the Article and in the Journal of such content, which shall include but is not limited to any proprietary text, illustration, table, or other material, including data, audio, video, film stills, and screenshots, and any supplemental material you propose to submit. Specifically, you warrant that the rights holder of any third party copyright materials included in your paper has either granted you permission to publish their material under the Creative Commons Attribution-Non-Commercial Licence CC-BY-NC, or has granted you permission to use their material with the appropriate copyright notice. You shall communicate in writing the extent of each such permission to Taylor & Francis.
- 4.2. You warrant that, apart from any such third party copyright material included in the Article, the Article is your original work, and does not infringe the intellectual property rights of any other person or entity and cannot be construed as plagiarizing any other published work, including your own published work.

- 4.3. You warrant that the Article is not currently under submission to, nor is under consideration by, nor has been accepted by any other journal or publication, nor has been previously published by any other journal or publication, nor has been assigned or licensed by you to any third party. Without prejudice to the provisions detailed herein, you undertake that the fully reference-linked Version of Scholarly Record will not be published elsewhere without our prior written consent.
- 4.4. You warrant that the Article contains no statement that is abusive, defamatory, libellous, obscene, fraudulent, nor in any way infringes the rights of others, nor is in any other way unlawful or in violation of applicable laws.
- 4.5. You warrant that any patient, service user, or participant (or that person's parent or legal guardian) in any research or clinical experiment or study who is mentioned in the Article has given written consent to the inclusion of material pertaining to themselves, and that they acknowledge that they cannot be identified via the Article and that you have anonymized them and that you do not identify them in any way. Where such a person is deceased, you warrant you have obtained the written consent of the deceased person's family or estate.
- 4.6. You warrant that where applicable:
 - i. all mandatory laboratory health and safety procedures have been complied with in the course of conducting any experimental work reported in your Article;
 - ii. your Article contains all appropriate warnings concerning any specific and particular hazards that may be involved in carrying out experiments or procedures described in the Article or involved in instructions, materials, or formulae in the Article; includes explicitly relevant safety precautions; and cites, if an accepted Standard or Code of Practice is relevant, a reference to the relevant Standard or Code.
- 4.7. You warrant that you have reviewed our Publishing Ethics and Conflicts of Interest Disclosure policies, and will include in the text of the Article an appropriate statement should you have a financial interest or benefit arising from the direct applications of your research.
- 4.8. If the Article was prepared jointly with other Authors, where applicable, you warrant that you have been authorized by all co-authors to sign this Agreement as agent on their behalf, and to agree on their behalf the priority of the assertion of copyright and the order of names in the publication of the Article. You shall notify us in writing of the names of any such co-authors.
- 4.9. You undertake that you will keep us and our affiliates indemnified in full against all loss, damages, injury, costs and expenses (including legal and other professional fees and expenses) awarded against or incurred or paid by us as a result of your breach of the warranties given in this Agreement.

5. GOVERNING LAW

- 5.1 This agreement (and any dispute, proceeding, claim or controversy in relation to it) is subject to United States law and the jurisdiction of the Courts of the United States. It may only be amended by a separate document signed by both parties.

6. THIRD PARTY ACCESS AND USAGE RIGHTS

- 6.1. Where Taylor & Francis Open Articles and Taylor & Francis Open Select Articles are made available on an Open Access basis, no subscription fee or article-pay-to-view fee or any other form of access fee are payable, and no publication embargo is applied.
- 6.2. With respect to use and re-use, third party users may access, download, copy, display and redistribute the Article as well as adapt, translate, text and data mine content contained in the Article, subject to the conditions detailed in the Creative Commons Attribution Non-Commercial Licence CC-BY-NC and its Legal Code:
 - i. such use and re-use is for strictly non-commercial purposes only,
 - ii. the authors' moral right to the integrity of their work is not compromised;
 - iii. where content contained in the Article is identified as belonging to a third party, it is the obligation of the user to ensure that any reuse complies with copyright policies of the owner.
 - iv. if Article content is copied, downloaded or otherwise used or re-used for non-commercial research or educational purposes, a link to the appropriate bibliographic citation – authors, journal, article title, volume, issue, page numbers, DOI and the link to the definitive published version on http:// www.tandfonline.com/ – must be created and maintained, and all copyright notices and disclaimers must not be deleted.

- 6.3. For the avoidance of doubt, the use and re-use of the Articles for commercial purposes by third parties is strictly prohibited. Such commercial purposes can include:
- i. the copying or downloading of the Article, or linking to such postings, for further redistribution, sale or licensing, for a fee;
 - ii. the copying, downloading or posting by a site or service that incorporates advertising with such content;
 - iii. the inclusion or incorporation of Article content in other works or services (other than normal quotations with an appropriate citation) that is then available for sale or licensing, for a fee;
 - iv. the use of the Articles or Article content (other than normal quotations with appropriate citation) by for-profit organizations for promotional purposes, whether for a fee or otherwise;
 - v. the use of the Articles or Article content for the purposes of monetary reward by means of sale, resale, license, loan, transfer or other form of commercial exploitation.
- 6.4. Any translations, for which a prior translation agreement with Taylor & Francis has not been established, must prominently display the statement:
'This is an unofficial translation of an article that appeared in a Taylor & Francis publication. Taylor & Francis have not endorsed this translation.'
